REVIEW GROUP MAY MEETINGS

CFM Review Class

Per Della Mc Grath

This year's CFM Review Class (Barbara Treumper-Green, Helen Dailey, Matt Wetzel and Frank Reinbolt) can see the end in sight. They're getting ready to apply to take the CFM exam in the next six weeks or so. There are three review sessions remaining (George Pavlonis, it's not too late to join the group!).

Monday, May 9th, 6:00 p.m., will be a make-up session for the session on Planning & Project Management which was missed earlier in the schedule.

Monday, May 23, the group plans to cover the CFM Glossary of Terms and miscellaneous review items the group wants to cover.

Then a wrap-up review session is scheduled for Monday, June 5th, to go over all topics briefly once more and see if everybody feels comfortable about going ahead and sitting for the CFM exam.

Session leader Della McGrath, CFM, reports it's been a very learning experience—and a great class. It's been easy to see the advantages of having the group review sessions; each member of the group has expertise in a different area—somebody's been able to cover each topic—with Scott Olson, CFM, covering the unit on real estate with the group.
